

I Just Love a Dancing Bear!

Words and Music by JOHN JACOBSON
Arranged by ROGER EMERSON

I just love a dancing bear,
Dancing here and dancing there.
Stretch up high;
 then crouch way down.
Clap your hands as you turn around.
Oh, don't you love a dancing bear?

I just love a circus clown,
Dancing all around the town.
Stretch up high;
 then crouch way down.
Clap your hands as you turn around.
Oh, don't you love a circus clown?

I just love a kitty cat,
A kitty cat is where it's at!
Stretch up high;
 then crouch way down.
Clap your hands as you turn around.
Oh, don't you love a kitty cat?

I just love a crocodile,
Love to see his crooked smile.
Stretch up high;
 then crouch way down.
Clap your hands as you turn around.
Oh, don't you love a crocodile?

I just love a dancing bear,
I just love a circus clown,
I just love a kitty cat,
I just love a crocodile,
So, stretch up high;
 then crouch way down.
Clap your hands as you turn around.
Oh, don't you love a crocodile?
Don't you love a kitty cat?
Don't you love a circus clown?
Don't you love a dancing bear?
